EDITORIAL

This year, Souvenir 2005 – the magazine that is dedicated to the radiating of the noble and radical messages of Sree Narayana Guru completes its 23rd year of publication among the friends in USA who follow the teachings of the Guru.

We have many a reason to rejoice and be proud of the present issue. Primarily, despite the availability of time, we do believe that we have come out with the best contributions we could ever get.

It has been a widely accepted reality that the vision of Sree Narayana Guru stretches beyond the confines of caste, space, creed, religion, or race. In fact, it is the holistic vision of the prophet.

And this is our contribution towards perpetuating his vision for the benefit of humanity.

Onam, which is just around the corner, has made many of Kerala's literary stalwarts slightly busy. We have deep regrets therefore, for being unable to include more contributions in this edition

We are thankful to our genuine friends back home, for their wholehearted help and support in making the effort a success.

We are also grateful to the Swamiji of Sivagiri Mutt, organizations like SNDP, and NSS, and their leaders for sharing with us their thoughts.

We appreciate the writers who provided us with excellent materials to be included in the souvenir, even though they were pressed for time.

Our special thanks to Mr. Radhakrishnan Vallabhasery who has volunteered to expedite and accomplish the task of making the souvenir a reality within the deadline.

Sincere thanks also to Mr. Haridas Valamangalam, Mr. J. Rameshkumar, Mr. Johnson Tharakan and Mr. Satish R.Gopal for extending their whole hearted support to Mr. Vallabhasery to accomplish his task.

While we sincerely hope that we are bringing you a souvenir par excellence, we also request all the readers to bear with us for any inadvertent lapses.

We proudly present to you this Souvenir 2005 that is definitely a collector's item on the vision of the Guru.

Come, be part of it.

Gurave Namaha:

Thank you.
